SCCF Orchestra Information

Dear Friends and Families:

As you know SCCF has been serving our community for 30 years. We have been organize voluntary music performances to entertain the community members. To take our service to a higher level and to meet the demands of the community, now we are in the process of building our own orchestra.

Now we are recruiting music talent and people with any age and experience with music performing interest to join us:

SCCF Orchestra provides you:

1. A Stage to Show Your Talent:

No fee or membership requirement for you to join and practice/performing with SCCF. We provide all facilities and opportunities and you just have fun! We present the opportunity to perform in our various events and concerts, help you or your kids build the confidence and experience.

2. Opportunities to Make Genuine Friends with Same Interest in Music

Our orchestra will practice twice a month in the facility secured by our organization. You will play with other performers

3. Serve Our Community

Bring happiness/service to other people fulfill great satisfaction in life. In the past, our volunteers have been earning their community service hours through our current monthly senior center performances. We are working to expand our volunteering program to meet the demands from the community

4. Great Cultural Experience

We will play not only western music, but also play some great Chinese music pieces and we will bring audience a different culture experience in Sacramento

5. Improve Your Skills

Playing in the orchestra will bring you a different experience in performing. To work with other people to create music give you a chance to learn and form a comrade relationship with other people.
